

- 1 Change the adverbs into adjectives.
 - a) beautifully _____
 - b) slowly _____
 - c) happily _____
 - d) warmly _____
 - e) loudly _____
 - f) interestingly _____
 - g) well _____

- 2 Are the underlined words adjectives or adverbs?
 - a) The guitarist is cool. He plays well.
 - b) My motorbike is fast.
 - c) He ran quickly down the slope.
 - d) The new keyboardist is nice.
 - e) She sang beautifully.
 - f) He always avoids conflicts.
 - g) These trousers are too small. Besides, yellow isn't exactly my favourite colour.
 - h) Mr Chang gave me some useful advice.
 - i) Tomorrow is my birthday.
 - j) Samantha has put on her new dress.
 - k) She sings beautifully.
 - l) My nephew is really bright.
 - m) This new torch shines really brightly.
 - n) The quiet girl walked silently out of the room.
 - o) I got my new car yesterday.
 - p) The perpetrator has blue eyes and blond hair and he walked quickly towards Grand Central Terminal.
 - q) How fast can you swim?
 - r) I'm sorry, but I'm not feeling well.
 - s) Stella is more beautiful than ever.
 - t) He ran slowly, but he walked better than ever.
 - u) Don't be so greedy!
 - v) Thank God you're back! I was so worried about you!
 - w) Nobody dances more graciously than Lisa.
 - x) He is normally a boring person, but his speech was quite interesting.
 - y) Marcel plays heavy rock, whereas his brother prefers rap.
 - z) Sabrina's work is top-secret, so she can't speak openly about it.